

The Williamite Universe

SYMPOSIUM ON LATE SEVENTEENTH-CENTURY ANGLO-DUTCH RELATIONS

23 June 2007

University of London
Room N336, North Block, Senate House
Malet Street, London WC1

PROGRAMME

9.30 REGISTRATION, COFFEE

10.00 SESSION 1

Wouter Troost

William Temple, William III and the Exclusion Crisis

Colin Heywood (Maritime History Research centre, University of Hull)
Work in progress? William III's Ostpolitik after forty years

Thomas Byrne

Disrupting Anglo-Dutch relations: the mission of Nathaniel Hooke to the Netherlands in 1702

11.45 COFFEE

12.00 SESSION 2

Gijs Rommelse (The Netherlands Institute of Military History, The Hague)

Mercantilism in Anglo-Dutch relations, 1650-1674

Joop van Wijngaarden

The invasion of England in 1688: Dutch attitudes

13.15 LUNCH

14.15 SESSION 3

Sarah Plimmer (University of Wales, Swansea)

Donkeys, drunkards, rapists and thieves: portrayals of the Dutch in Restoration drama

Inge Broekman & Helmer Helmers (Leiden)

'Het hart des offraers': the Dutch Gift as an act of self-representation

15.30 BREAK

15.35 SESSION 4

Gary Evans (University of the West of England)

Historicising the Anglo-Dutch wars in England and the Netherlands: memory, history and ideology c.1654-c.1750

Hugh Dunthorne (University of Wales, Swansea)

Migration to and from the Low Countries as a factor in the religious history of early modern Britain

16.35 TEA
Discussion and closing remarks

17.10 CLOSE [Building closes 17.15]