

WILLIAM III: Politics and Culture in International Context

Utrecht, 13/14 December 2002

Opening: Dr Jan Veldhuis (President of University Board, Utrecht)

Introduction: Prof. Wijnand Mijnhardt (University of Utrecht)

Politics

Chair: Prof. John Childs (University of Leeds)

Prof. Simon Groenveld (University of Leiden): William III as Stadholder: Minister or Prince?

Prof. Bill Speck (University of Northumbria): William III as King

Dr Tony Claydon (University of Bangor): William III and the godly revolution

Mr Charles Levillain (Sorbonne): 'Cromwell revived'? William III as military dictator: myth and reality

International affairs

Chair: Dr Jeroen Duindam (University of Utrecht)

Prof. John Rule (Ohio State University): The Age of Diplomacy and the Diplomats

Prof. Alan Macinnes (University of Aberdeen): "Disaster for Scotland": Jacobite antipathy to William

Dr Wouter Troost (Gouda): Ireland's role in the foreign policy of William III

John Stapleton (Ohio State University): The Dual Monarchy in Practice: William III and the Confederate Army, 1689 - 1697

Intellectual and Church Affairs

Chair: Dr Alex Murdoch (University of Edinburgh)

Dr Frits Broeyer (University of Utrecht): William III and the Reformed Church of the Netherlands

Dr John Spurr (University of Swansea): William III and the British church

Dr Clare Jackson and Dr Mark Goldie (University of Cambridge): Dutch Tyranny and Jacobite Whigs

Prof. Martin van Gelderen (University of Sussex): In Defence of King Billy: Eric Walten and the Justification of the Glorious Revolution

Culture and the Arts

Chair: Prof. Maarten Prak (University of Utrecht)

Prof. Olaf Mörke (University of Kiel): William III's stadholderly court

Dr Andrew Barclay (History of Parliament, London): William III's royal court

Dr Hugh Dunthorne (University of Swansea): William III in prints and portraits

Prof. Koen Ottenheim (University of Utrecht): Magnificence in Stone, the Architecture of William III and his Circle in the Dutch Republic

Dr Esther Mijers (University of St Andrews) and David Onnekink (University of Utrecht):
Concluding remarks

---

Home